Mobile Training Teams Initiative for Aboriginal Mental Health and Addictions Workers

Learning Objectives:
- Learn about the mobile training and professional development being delivered to Aboriginal mental health and addictions workers in Northern Ontario
- Learn about the use of culturally adapted and informed interventions and counselling techniques
- Learn about the implementation resources to support uptake and fidelity

Presenter:
Renee Linklater, PhD
Director, Aboriginal Engagement and Outreach
Provincial System Support Program
Centre for Addiction and Mental Health

Biography:
Renee Linklater, PhD is a member of Rainy River First Nations in Northwestern Ontario. Renee has extensive experience working with Aboriginal healing agencies and First Nation communities. She has worked across the health and education sectors as a frontline worker, program evaluator, curriculum developer, educator/trainer and researcher. She is an international speaker on trauma and healing and is author of "Decolonizing trauma work: Indigenous stories and strategies". Renee is the Director of Aboriginal Engagement and Outreach for the Provincial System Support Program at the Center for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH).